

Problem definition: Tokyo (partial)

The different pieces of information that make up a decision to travel to a particular city or country. These are just a couple of the main categories.

